COUNTY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.

One Hundred and Seventeenth Annual Meeting Held on Thursday-Interesting Papers Discussed-Officers Elected.
The Windham County Medical Association held its one hundred and seventeenth annual meeting at the Hotel Hooker here Thursday and the session was well attended, between twenty-five and thirty being present.
Dr. John Weldon called the meeting to order, as president of the association, and Dr. James L. Gardner of Central Village, the secretary, read the proceedings of the last meeting that were accepted. Addresses were delivered by Dr. Samuel Gilbert of New Haven, president of the State Medical Association, and Dr. W. L. Higgins of South Coventry, who took as his subject "Recent Medical Legislation." A recess was then taken for dinner.
Those in attendance were: Dr. Sam-

OBITUARY.

Catherine E. Turner, aged 88, died at the home of her son, Arthur G. Turner, 98 Windham street, very late Wednesday evening, following about a week's illness with grip and pneumonia. Deceased was the daughter of Walter and Eunice Tilden of Coventry and was born there Sept. 28, 1822. In 1846 she married P. W. Turner and for five years they made their home in New York, then for a short time in Tolland. They moved to Mansfield Hollow near the foot of the Windham hills in 1853, where Mr. Turner was a manufacturer and leading citizen for many years. Mr. Turner died in 1903 and for the last years of his life Mrs. Turner had been making her home with her son in this city. She had been afflicted with lameness and deafness for a number of years, but aside from those infirmities she enjoyed the best of health up to her last illness. No other near relative, aside from the only son, Arthur G. Turner, of this city, survives.

Lathrop P. Weaver.
Lathrop Palmer Weaver, aged 61, died at his home in Windham Center late Wednesday night, following an illness of three months. He had been a resident of Windham all his life. There survive a widow, Mrs. Anne Weaver, a daughter, Mrs. William Richmond, of Windham, and two sisters, Mrs. George Hull of Manchester and Mrs. E. N. Williams of Bridgeport.

FUNERAL.

Miss Marie Anne Dabois.
The funeral of Miss Marie Anne Dabois was held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's church. Rev. Arthur DeBruycker officiating. A delegation from the Children of Mary, of which deceased was a member, attended the service. The bearers were Martin Mullen, Alphonse Bergeron, Pierre Paulhus and N. Bertrand. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

NURSES' GRADUATION.

St. Joseph's Hospital Training School Sends Out Class of Seven—Diplomas Presented by President Guilford Smith.
There was a large attendance at the town hall Thursday evening to witness the exercises incident to the graduation of the first class that has been sent out from the training school for nurses connected with St. Joseph's hospital.

The exercises opened with an introductory address by Dr. John Weldon. This was followed by the address to the graduating class by Dr. D. F. Sullivan of Hartford. Dr. Sullivan was presented by Hon. Guilford Smith of South Windham, president of the evening board of the institution. Those receiving diplomas were Miss Mary A. Bank of Berlin, Miss Margaret E. Harpner of Willimantic, Miss Margaret A. Young of South Coventry, Miss Mary E. Curran of Willimantic, Sister Monaca Anderson and Sister Walburga Dawson of Liverpool, Eng.

At the conclusion of the exercises dancing was in order, music being furnished by Haimold's orchestra. Light refreshments were served by Caterer E. L. Prince at intermission.
Taken altogether, the evening's programme and social time that followed was one of the best ever held under the auspices of the nurses at St. Joseph's hospital.

Allen-Hastings Wedding.
A. C. Allen, a former resident of this city and a well known railroad man, was united in marriage Wednesday afternoon with Miss Edith Hastings, a sister of Frank E. Hastings of Windham road. Mr. and Mrs. Allen left on an evening train to spend their honeymoon around Boston. Mr. Allen is conductor on local Providence freight No. 4354 and 4354 and has been living in Providence. Both parties are very well known in this city. This is Mr. Allen's second matrimonial venture.

High School Pupils to Entertain.
The Windham High school orchestra will give its concert next week. The Girls' Glee club will assist the orchestra, as well as the Boys' Glee club, both of which are under the direction of C. E. Carroll, instructor of music in the public schools. Miss Cecily Smith, teacher of education at the Connecticut Agricultural college at Storrs, will render several selections.

Men of Baptist Church to Be Entertained.
The Brotherhood of the First Baptist church has perfected arrangements for an evening's entertainment for men next Tuesday evening in the church parlors. Capt. B. G. Osborn of New York, who was secretary of the Arctic club for many years, has been secured as the entertainer and the genial captain will take as a subject "A Bunch of Yanks." The captain is an experienced sailor, having seen service in four different wars and participated in many engagements. Three different terms were served in the United States navy, the last command being in the Anglo-Chinese war, a commander in the Argentine navy, and an admiral in the Mexican navy. His bunch of yarns contains many of his own personal experiences and he can spin them in grand style.

"The Soul Kiss" at Opera House.
The "Soul Kiss" was the attraction at the Loomer opera house Thursday evening and played to a good house. The show of this character is always more or less making whether good, bad or indifferent, and the presentation last evening might well be characterized as the best, although it found not a few nodders in the good sized audience.

Report Concerning Paulhus Bankruptcy.

It was reported Thursday afternoon that Attorney S. B. Harvey, who represents some of the creditors of the J. B. Paulhus company, that had the books closed about six weeks ago by Dunham Brothers of Brattleboro, Vt., an alleged heavy creditor, by an attachment on the store, stock and fixtures had instituted proceedings in behalf of some of the creditors to force the company into involuntary bankruptcy. Attorney Harvey was out of town Thursday and could not be reached.

Hance of Wesleyan university will conduct both morning and evening services.
Stephen A. Austin of Berlin and two friends were in town Thursday on a fishing trip. Mr. Austin was a former resident of this place and is well acquainted with all the brooks in this vicinity. The result of their day's work was a handsome string of trout.

Rev. B. D. Remington will leave town this (Friday) morning for a few days, his relatives in Bridgeport on account of his health.

Samuel Halper of New Haven was calling on friends in town Thursday. He was accompanied by his wife and two sons, Arthur and Louis, who have been in business with their father. He lately purchased the Connors property on Lebanon avenue, which was owned by C. N. Taintor of New York. He was a member of Oliver Woodhouse lodge, No. 1, F. & M. S. He was a hard working man, had made many friends since coming here who are grieved and shocked at his death.

Francis Champion has moved his household goods to the Shesha street, Willimantic avenue, which he has lately purchased.

William Wickwire was in Lyme Wednesday.

NOANK

Donald Whitley Wins Bride in Lowell—Crowd at St. Joseph's Church Fair—Shipping Notes.

Word was received in the village on Thursday of the marriage of Miss Mary Whitley of Noank and Donald Whitley of Lowell on Wednesday, April 20. Joseph Fisher of Noank was best man and Miss Katherine McPhee of Lowell was bridesmaid. The wedding was witnessed only by relatives and a few intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Whitley after a short honeymoon will come to Noank to reside. The Wilson tenement on High street has been furnished and awaits their coming. Mr. Whitley is employed at the R. Palmer & Son shipyard.

Banner Night of Fair.
Thursday night was the big night of St. Joseph's church fair. The hall was crowded when the curtain went up on the first number of the entertainment programme. The chief attraction was the singing of the Konome home company, ministers, of New London, whose specialties were received with enthusiasm. The programme for the evening was as follows:

Violin solo, Clarence Spink, accompanied by Miss Madeline Spink; Robert Talbot, con solo singing Terrible Storm; Jack dancer, string player and his Mandolin club, That Pole Climber; sentimental ballads, Samuel Rubin; Hymnical finale, entire company.

There will be no entertainment on Saturday evening.

Trip to Islands Enjoyed.
There was a large passenger list on the trip to the Hawaiian Islands on Thursday. A. Housman was in charge of the arrangements.

Local Shipping.
The large houseboat Rosalie owned by ex-Mayor E. W. Hooker of Hartford was taken Thursday by Captain Nelson from her mooring at the Freeman Rogers boat yards to the shipyard, where she will be hauled out. Some of the old plank is to be replaced and after which she will be painted and prepared to go into commission.

Steamer Block Island has been hauled out at the shipyard and will be repainted and painted. She will be repainted before going on her regular run from Norwich to Block Island.

Fishing schooner T. W. Dodge left port Thursday for New London, where she is to be hauled out, painted and recalcined.

Auxiliary yacht Monemela has been launched from the ways at the shipyard and is being painted. The crew is employed overhauling and rigging the yacht for the summer's cruises.

Newsy Notes.
E. F. Wilbur has returned from a brief business trip to New Bedford.
Mrs. Sarah Palmer returned Thursday from a visit with relatives in New Jersey.

Alderman C. C. Perkins of New London called on relatives in the village Thursday.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

John Anthony, Charged with Arson, Held in $1,000 Bonds.

John Anthony, who was charged with arson, was put on trial again Thursday in the borough court before Acting Judge Chandler. Probable cause was found and the accused was bound over to the June term of the superior court. Bond was fixed at $1,000, which was furnished by a friend.

Mr. W. M. Crawford, who has been confined to the house for several weeks by illness, is much improved.

New Quarters Opened.
The electric light company had a formal opening of its office Thursday evening. A large number were present to inspect the new quarters. Lynch's orchestra was in attendance and gave an enjoyable concert.

PROF. SMITH TO RETIRE.

Head of History Department of Yale To End Long-time Service.
Prof. Charles Henry Smith, head of the history department at Yale university, will retire this June under the Carnegie Foundation. He has been an instructor in history since the civil war, excepting the entire period at Yale, spending the years from 1874 to 1886, when he was at Bowdoin.

Prof. Smith graduated from Yale in 1865, and took an LL.D. degree from Bowdoin in 1884. He was interested in debating and acted as critic and judge at many college events. He has written several books and contributed the chapters on Yale to "Universities and Their Sons."

Prof. Smith was born in Beirut, Syria, in 1842. His father, the Rev. F. Smith, was for 30 years a missionary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. He is perhaps best known as the translator of the Bible into Arabic.
